

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 20, 2009

The Nassau County Economic Development Board invites up and coming Nassau County professionals under 40 years old who are interested in learning more about volunteer and board service opportunities to attend a mixer and information session from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 9, 2009 at the Café @ the Hamptons, 95742 Amelia Concourse, Yulee, FL 32097. The economic development organization recruits companies to expand and relocate their businesses to Nassau County and therefore create local jobs and increase county tax revenue. The organization's board development committee is sponsoring the event and is seeking to diversify its board to better match Nassau County's demographic profile. The event will include light hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. Attendees are encouraged to review the Nassau County Economic Development Board's Web site, expandinnassau.com in advance and bring plenty of business cards. For more information and to RSVP, contact Noelle Perry at (904) 225-8878 or nperry@expandinnassau.com.
